Course name	Lecture of Teaching Method for Persons with Physical Disabilities
Course Number	CE26021
Credits	1.0
Year	2
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall AB Tue 3
Instructor	Takao ANDO
Course overview	Many students in special needs schools (physically handicapped education area) suffer from brain diseases. This course will enable students to analyze the current situation about the problem that is increasingly complex in the field of education for children with physically disabilities, and then organize and study the basic and practical issues in association with the creation and assessment of "class."
Remarks	The course will request a mandatory practice teaching of special needs class at the Kirigaoka Special Needs School. The class time of practice teaching may be different from the regular class time of this course.
Teaching method	Lecture
Attainment target	Students will understand the basic concepts involved in education for children with physical disabilities.
Teaching schedule	Days 1-2: Definition of motor impairment (physical disabilities), causative disease, and classification criteria Days 3-4: Current status and issues in education for children with physical disabilities I Severity and multiplication of disabilities and organization of corresponding curriculum Days 5-8: Current status and issues in education for children with physical disabilities II ・Disability characteristics and course instruction ・Training of JIRITSU-KATSUDO ・Implementation of medical care and its issues Day 9: Teaching and support of children with physical disabilities in regular class Day 10: Problem sorting and report creation
Course conditions
Evaluation	Evaluation based on the results of attendance record (50 points) and report submission (50 points)
Homework
Text Book
Reference	Course of Study for Special Needs Schools in Japan
Office hours
Expectation for student	It is preferable that students also take the Curriculum in Education for Children with Disabilities and the Introduction to JIRITSU-KATSUDO as Japan's original field of education.
Keywords	