Term, Weekday and Period Spr AB Tue 3 Term, Weekday and Period Jun YAEDA Course overview The course will discuss the outline of legislation and employment trends in Japan and abroad, needs of employment support service users, roles and functions of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and technique of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FV2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support reproduce institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support reeds assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (DIT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from school to workplace K. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace M. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from proson to workplace M. Tr	Course name	Theory of employment support services and Vocational Rehabilitation
Year 3 Term, Weekday and Period Spr AB Tue 3 Period Spr AB Tue 3 Period Spr AB Tue 3 Term, Weekday and Period Spr AB Tue 3 The course will discuss the outline of legislation and employment trends in Japan and abroad, needs of employment support service users, roles and functions of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and technique of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support reverse institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support from whole to workplace U. Transition support from whole facility to workplace U. Transition support from whole facility to workplace U. Transition support from whol	Course Number	CE31721
Term, Weekday and Period Spr AB Tue 3 Period Jun YAEDA Course overview The course will discuss the outline of legislation and employment trends in Japan and abroad, needs of employment support service users, roles and functions of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and technique of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support resord shoot oversible of the service	Credits	1.0
Instructor Jun YAEDA The course will discuss the outline of legislation and employment trends in Japan and abroad, needs of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support meds assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OIT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from school to workplace M. Transition support from more to workplace M. Transition support from more to workplace J. Transition support from prison to workplace J. Transition support from prison to workplace J. Transition support from prison to workplace O. Comprehensive support for work motivation, job satisfaction, and career development Course conditions Nothing in particular. Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussio	Year	3
The course will discuss the outline of legislation and employment trends in Japan and abroad, needs of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and chinque of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support for institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OIT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from school to workplace M. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from welfare facilit	Term, Weekday and Period	Spr AB Tue 3
needs of employment support service users, roles and functions of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and technique of employment support, and cooperation with medical care and educational fields. Remarks The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support reeds assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (O17) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from school to workplace L. Transition support from bene to workplace L. Transition support from person to workplace J. Transition support from person to workplace O. Comprehensive support from prison to workplace O. Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Feval Book Course conditions Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Instructor	Jun YAEDA
Worker. The course is equivalent to CE31271 in FY2012 or earlier. Teaching method Lecture Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. Teaching schedule A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OIT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace L. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace L. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from workplace O. Comprehensive support from work motivation, job satisfaction, and career development Course conditions Nothing in particular. Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Homework Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Course overview	needs of employment support service users, roles and functions of employment support, vocational rehabilitation agencies, and related professionals, the process and technique of
Attainment target Students will be able to learn about the basic knowledge about employment support services and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OIT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from bospital to workplace L. Transition support from prison to workplace D. Transition support from prison to workplace O. Comprehensive support from welfare facility to workplace O. Comprehensive support from work motivation, job satisfaction, and career development Course conditions Nothing in particular. Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Homework Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Remarks and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and psychiatric social workers. A. History and philosophy of employment support services B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OTT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from bome to workplace L. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace O. Comprehensive support for work motivation, job satisfaction, and career development Course conditions Nothing in particular. Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Homework Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Teaching method	Lecture
B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OJT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from hospital to workplace L. Transition support from home to workplace M. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from prison to workplace O. Comprehensive support for work motivation, job satisfaction, and career development Course conditions Nothing in particular. Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Homework Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Attainment target	and specific employment support, which are essential for the jobs of social workers and Evaluation Comprehensive evaluation based on the results of attendance record, discussion in the class, classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Teaching schedule	B. Welfare employment and general employment C. Target persons of employment support services D. Employment support service institutions and facilities and the legal system E. Vocational rehabilitation professionals and workers F. Employment support needs assessment and vocational evaluation G. Individualized employment support plan and employment support coordination H. Training in the workplace (OJT) and job coaching I. Workplace development and workplace environmental adjustment J. Transition support from hospital to workplace K. Transition support from school to workplace L. Transition support from welfare facility to workplace J. Transition support from prison to workplace classroom assignment, and reporting assignment Students are encouraged to visit the public employment security office and the employment center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Course conditions	Nothing in particular. center for persons with disabilities. Text Book Reference Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Evaluation	· ·
Reference Office hours Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Homework
Office hours Wednesday 17:00-18:00 Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Text Book
Expectation for student The course will provide students with various information to support their employment. Active involvement by students is expected.	Reference involvement by students is expected.	Office hours	Wednesday 17:00-18:00
Keywords	Expectation for student
	Keywords	