

Course name	Seminar on social work IV
Course Number	CE31842
Credits	1.0
Year	4
Term, Weekday and Period	Fall ABC
Instructor	Toru MORICHI, Masaru NAGAWA, Katsuo YAMANAKA, Miho OMURA
Course overview	The course will review the experience of the Practice Teaching on Social Work and the Coaching for Social Work Practice and re-examine the assessment, planning, and implementation in each practice.
Remarks	The course is specified as a prerequisite subject for the examination of national certified social worker. Students are requested to take this course together with the Coaching for Social Work Practice and the Practice Teaching on Social Work. Details will be informed later.
Teaching method	Seminar
Attainment target	Students will be able to summarize what they learned through the Practice Teaching on Social Work and the Coaching for Social Work Practice, put it in their own language, share it among students, staff of training facilities or institutions, and responsible teachers, and discuss it in order to deepen the contents of the study. Then, they will reconfirm the requirements as a social worker in a clinical setting to become a highly capable social worker with practical skills.
Teaching schedule	Students will summarize the training contents in a form of presentation material. Then, they will report the summarized article in front of other students, staff in the training facilities or institutions, and responsible teachers and answer questions if any. Through these interactions, students will review their own training and summarize what they learned in the training to clarify issues as a future social worker based on the findings. Through these processes, students will improve their practical ability as a social worker.
Course conditions
Evaluation
Homework
Text Book
Reference
Office hours
Expectation for student	Students are expected to verbalize what they learned in the Practice Teaching on Social Work and the Coaching for Social Work Practice. They should understand the contents well and attend the class with high motivation to improve their practical skills as a social worker.
Keywords	